“MY ANCESTOR WALKED WITH CHAMPLAIN”

In 2009, we celebrated the 400th Anniversary of Samuel de Champlain coming to our region. Quebec celebrated the 400th Anniversary of his first visit in 2008.

Champlain died following a stroke on December 25, 1635 near Quebec City. It is not known where his remains are buried. He had made many trips between France, Quebec and Acadia by sea.

SAMUEL de CHAMPLAIN was married only once, to HELENE BOULLE. He never had any children.
